EVERGREENS TREES SHRUBS

To have beautiful shrubs, they need protection against insects and fungus in most localities in the United States.

By spraying with CARCO-X, mixed 1-100, thoroughly drenching shrubs and soil underneath in late winter spring, summer and fall, you can give them the protection they need because CARCO-X is very effective against certain insects, their eggs, and certain fungus and acts as a repellent.

Soil treatment in late Fall is particularly effective.
